

Corporate media consolidation threatens the type and quality of information provided to our citizens through our current media sources. I am against media monopoly!